Belonging Begins With Love

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Three Fires Confederacy: the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi, and the neighbouring Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Attawandaron peoples.

*Please adopt the best posture for you in singing.

Call to Worship:

As summer fades and new routines begin,

God's love remains steady.

In the middle of change, we are not alone.

We belong to God and to one another.

Hymn # 395 "Come In, Come In and Sit Down"

Passing of the Peace:

Peace be with you.

And also with you.

(We take a moment to greet one another in peace)

Opening Prayer:

Holy God, you gather us in every season - not because we have it figured out, but because you are faithful. Some of us are returning to classrooms and offices; others are settling into quiet mornings, noticing the leaves beginning to turn.
All of us are discovering the shape of new days.

In the middle of it all, remind us: we belong to you and to one another. Open our hearts to the work of belonging - the patience, the forgiveness, the love that holds us together. Amen.
