In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

-John McCrae

"In Flander's Fields" read by Barbara Mitchell-Scott

Remembering:

They shall not grow old, as we are left to grow old Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,

We will remember them.

A Hymn for Remembrance Day

Be with us Lord as we our homage pay to those who gave their lives for freedom's sake In many lands, their crosses proudly stand such was the price their duty did demand

They left us freedom, which we still enjoy a gift so precious man must not destroy show us oh, father, how best we can serve a world to live by faith and not by nerve.

*The peace we have is ours through constant care our trust in arms leads only to despair.
Guide us, O Lord, when we must take a stand to place our country's future in your hand*

We need a piece that comes through faith and prayer Lord gives us courage, we must not disappear. forgive us, Lord if we forgetful be for time alone can cloud our memory
