

Tecumseh United Church
~ An Affirming Congregation ~

Sunday, July 10th, 2022 - 10:00 a.m.

We are a fragrance-free environment. We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Attawandaron, Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples

We Gather in God's Love

Welcoming & Announcements

Call to Worship:

(taken from Iona Abbey Worship Book, Isle of Iona, Scotland)

The world belongs to God,
the earth and all its people.
It is good to live in community,
to work and talk with each other.

Love and faith come together;
justice and peace join hands.
If the friends of Jesus Christ kept silent,
these stones would shout aloud.

We are glad to be in God's house,
to listen, and sing, and pray.

*Hymn # 421 "Lead On, O Cloud of Presence"

Opening Prayer: (taken from VU #199)

Creative Spirit, come to us. Give vision to the minds you own.
Fill the hearts which you have made with gifts whose grace is yours alone.

Praise to God, to Christ the Word, and to the Spirit:
all adored.

For you are called the Comforter, the glorious gift of God Most High, the living water, fire and love, the outpouring of eternity.

Praise to God, to Christ the Word, and to the Spirit:
all adored.

Make our imaginations blaze, and fill our hearts
with flowing love, that we, who have no strength,
may know the strong flight of the soaring dove.

Praise to God, to Christ the Word, and to the Spirit:
all adored. Amen.

*Hymn MV # 1 "Let Us Build a House"

The war in Ukraine continues and as it does so the daily updates become all too familiar. The need for support, however, does not lessen. The United Church is extending support through its partnerships. There is a way of supporting Ukrainian refugees through Gifts with Vision. If you wish to support through the Mission and Service Fund you can do so online or by writing a cheque to Tecumseh United Church and marking it for "Emergency Response-Ukraine Crisis". Individual support through Gifts with Vision can be done online as outlined in the instructions.
