Transfiguration Sunday

Welcome / Announcements / Land Acknowledgement

Call to Worship:

We come from busy lives to this place of sanctuary and peace,
to pray and be renewed for the week ahead.

We come to the foot of God's holy mountain.

The totality of God's glory is obscured, but in God's presence our lives are illuminated, and we receive instruction on how we should live.

Here we seek connection, even if for just a moment, to the divine source of our life and all that is in our universe.

It is good for us to be here.

Let us make in our hearts a dwelling place for Christ.

Come, let us worship God who is most high.

*Hymn MV # 150 Spirit God, Be Our Breath

Opening Prayer:

O God,

we come today to refresh and to restore all that is within our hearts and minds.

Like the disciples climbing the mountain with Jesus,
we come expecting nothing yet prepared to experience your love.

During this time together, may we find our true selves
just as Jesus' true self was revealed on the mountaintop.

May we find your wisdom, and its strength, for we know that your love restores and refreshes us in mysterious ways.

O God, fill us anew. Amen.
