THANKSGIVING SUNDAY

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Three Fires Confederacy-the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi- and the neighbouring Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee, and Attawandaron peoples.

* Please adopt the posture which best suits you for singing

Call to Worship:

We gather as a people who have received much.

We come to worship with grateful hearts.

We gather as a people held by love.

We come to worship with open hands.

We gather as a people called to notice.

We come to worship with eyes and hearts
open to God's generosity.

 Hymn MV 2 "Come All You People" (Uyai mose)

Opening Prayer:

God of abundance, you have prepared a universe of wonder - a world with everything life needs, and beyond. You did not wait for us to earn a place. You did not wait for us to be ready. You simply made a home for us, and you kept inviting us, again and again, even when we turned away. Open our hearts to receive your generous welcome with gratitude. Open our hands to make that welcome real for others. And make us a people whose hospitality is not just words, but a world - until all know they have a place at your table. Amen.
