

Tecumseh United Church
~ An Affirming Congregation ~
Sunday, May 22nd, 2022 - 10:00 a.m.

We are a fragrance-free environment. We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Attawandaron, Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples

We Gather in God's Love

Welcoming & Announcements

Call to Worship:

In this space and time, we form community:

like singing in unison with the strength of common word and action, and like singing in harmony with the depth and richness of different notes and themes.

The Christian church is about community:

and we ascribe to that tradition with the joys and struggles that come about in relationship.

We live in community:

community with Great Spirit God and community with each other as people of the Spirit.

Let us worship together with God and with each other in our hearts and on our minds, in the building up of the community we are called to be, seeking to be one, just as Jesus prayed we would be.

*Hymn # 371 "Open My Eyes that I May See"

Opening Prayer:

O Holy One,

we rejoice in your resurrection and ascension.

Lord Jesus, you departed our world.

We are here, yet where are you?

We seek you, longing to feel your loving presence.

How shall we carry on without you near?

So, we pause to listen and to pay attention for the quiet whisper of the Holy Spirit, nudging us closer to you.

We pause to realize we are not alone,

that you continue to lead us onward,
showing us how to create the kingdom* of God on earth.
As your beloved children, we pray. Amen.

*Hymn # 316 "Praise Our Maker"
