

Tecumseh United Church
~ An Affirming Congregation ~
Sunday, July 6th, 2025 - 10:00 a.m.
We are a fragrance-free environment.

We acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Attawandaron, Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples.

We Gather in God's Love

Hymn MV #1 "Let Us Build a House"

Call to Worship

O God, you made all lands.

Thank you for this great land called Canada.

From Bonavista, Newfoundland, to the birth of our country
in tiny Prince Edward Island,
to Vancouver Island in British Columbia, and Baffin Island in the Arctic,
to Manitoulin Island in the Great Lake waters,
this land is made for you and me.

Opening Prayer

O God, we thank you for our great country.
From the fishing banks of Newfoundland, to the farming and fishing communities of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, to the forests of New Brunswick and Quebec.
With rivers and lakes, you gave us hydro-electric resources in New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario.
You provided industries of mining and manufacturing in Quebec and Ontario.
Across the prairies of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, to the foothills and glacier ice fields of Alberta, to the mountains and rivers of British Columbia, to the northern lights and frozen tundra of the Yukon, Northwest Territories and Nunavut. You gave us this huge country called Canada.
To us, it is the greatest country in the world.
From the First Nation peoples, to the French and British explorers, to the blend of people from every land, Canada is called home and this is our home. Thank you God for the diversity of our land: for the many natural resources

that you provide; for the many languages, cultures,
and creeds that make up the fabric of Canada.
Thank you God! We are a blessed nation! Amen.
